GENERAL PROVISIONS

Capitalized terms are defined in the Certificate or other documents made a part of this Policy.

PREMIUM CHANGES

We reserve the right to change premium rates any time after:

- a) the most recent premium rate guarantee date described in this Policy;
- b) there is an increase or decrease of 10% or more in the Policyholder's Employee population or the number of Employees insured under this Policy;
- c) Our liability or cost of administration is changed due to a change in federal, state, or local law;
- d) this Policy's terms are changed; or
- e) there is a change which materially affects the risk assumed for insurance provided by this Policy.

We must give the Policyholder at least 90 days advance Written Notice of any premium rate change.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

The premium for this Policy equals the sum of the individual premiums for each Insured Person. The first premium is due on the effective date of this Policy. Subsequent premiums are due on the first day of each subsequent month or other modal period agreed to in writing by an authorized representative in Our home office. Premium payments must be made to Our home office or to a location We designate, using a payment method We accept. We will consider premium to be paid on the date We receive it.

GRACE PERIOD

This Policy has a 31 day grace period. This means that, except for the initial premium, if the premium is not paid on or before the date it is due, it may be paid in 31-day period that follows. This Policy will stay in force during the grace period, unless the Policyholder gives Us written notice that this Policy will terminate during the grace period. If We receive such notice, We will terminate this Policy on the date requested.

TERMINATION

Following at least 60 days advance written notice to the Policyholder, We have the right to terminate this Policy:

- a) if the number of Employees insured is less than 5 or less than 25% of those eligible for insurance;
- b) any time after the most recent premium rate guarantee date described in this Policy; or
- c) if the Policyholder does not perform any of its duties under this Policy.

The Policyholder has the right to terminate this Policy at any time. The Policyholder must give Us written notice of at least 31 days before the date this Policy is to terminate, unless the Policyholder gives Us written notice that this Policy will terminate during the grace period.

This Policy will automatically terminate at the end of the grace period if the Policyholder fails to pay its portion of the premium.

If this Policy terminates for any reason:

- a) all unpaid premiums up to the date of termination are due, including premiums for the grace period or any part of the grace period; and
- b) all unpaid premiums are due no later than the date of termination.

Termination of this Policy will not affect benefits otherwise payable for a claim incurred while this Policy is in force.

REINSTATEMENT AFTER TERMINATION

If this Policy terminates for any reason, the Policyholder may request to reinstate it. We will reinstate only if:

- a) an authorized representative in Our home office agrees in writing to reinstate this Policy;
- b) the Policyholder agrees in writing to accept any written conditions of reinstatement that We impose;
- c) all past due premiums are paid, including any premium for the time insurance was in effect during the grace period; and
- d) the premium due from the date of reinstatement until the next premium due date is paid.

CERTIFICATES

We will issue the Policyholder a Certificate for delivery to each Insured Person. The Certificate describes the benefits, terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations of the insurance provided under this Policy.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE OR GENDER

If an Insured Person's age or gender is misstated, We may adjust the premium or the benefits payable. An adjustment of the benefits payable will be based on what the premium would have purchased at the correct age or gender.

INCONTESTABILITY

We will not contest this Policy after it has been in force two years, except for nonpayment of premium.

POLICYHOLDER RESPONSIBILITIES

The Policyholder will notify:

- a) both the Insured Person and Us when the Insured Person's insurance under this Policy ends if the Insured Person ceases to be eligible for insurance under this Policy;
- b) each Insured Person and Us when insurance under this Policy ends if this Policy is terminated and is not replaced by another policy or plan with no interruption in coverage; and
- c) Us when the amount of insurance coverage for which an Insured Person is eligible changes.

Notice shall be provided within 31 days from the date insurance ends or the amount of insurance coverage changes for the Insured Person. Notice to the Insured Person shall include information about any options available to continue or obtain insurance.

If We do not receive notice under a) above within this 31-day time period, We may require the Policyholder to reimburse Us for the amount of any claims paid on behalf of any ineligible person and/or any dependents of such person during the time the person was ineligible. The Policyholder must reimburse Us for claims under this provision within 60 days after receipt of Our written request for payment.

The Policyholder is responsible for keeping the following records:

- a) persons insured by classification and any persons eligible but not insured;
- b) the amount of money the Policyholder contributes toward premiums;
- c) beneficiary designation information, if applicable; and
- d) any other information which We may reasonably request.

The Policyholder will provide Us with copies of these records upon request. These records must be open to Us for inspection at any reasonable time. The Policyholder will provide, as We require, any information on Our forms which is needed for insurance administration.

ASSIGNMENT

No assignment of this Policy is binding upon Us unless an officer in Our home office agrees to it in writing and not until it is recorded with Us at Our home office.
