

Restricted Topics

Some of the areas covered in the module course work duplicate topics on which one can write life-learning papers for credit. Therefore, the following topics may not be written by some students:

Restricted Topics for Management and Organizational Development Students

- Business Procedures/Implementations
- Personnel Management
- Interpersonal Communications
- Leadership
- Management Principles
- Supervision Principles

Restricted Topics for Bachelor of Arts/Business Major

- Business Procedures/Implementations
- Personnel Management
- Leadership
- Management Principles
- Supervision Principles
- Marketing.

Restricted Topics for Family Life Education Students

- Child Development
- Interviewing (from psychology perspective)
- Marriage and Family – for psychology or sociology credit
- Marriage Encounter experience
- Parenting – for psychology or sociology credit

NOTE: FLE students also have time limitations on “Death, Dying, and Bereavement” and “Family Disorganization” papers. See the Social Science category on the preceding “Subject Area List” for more information.

Restricted Topics for Bachelor of Science in Nursing Students

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| • Children: Growth & Development | • Nutrition |
| • Death, Dying & Bereavement | • Substance Abuse: Diagnosis & Treatment (from NSC perspective) |
| • Gerontology | • Women’s Health Issues |
| • Health Issues | |
| • History of Nursing | |